DETAILED ACTION

This communication is responsive to the amendment dated August 3, 2005.

Priority

Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-4 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 3, 4, 6 and 19 of U.S. Patent No. 6,702,080. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the patent and the application are claiming common subject matter. Specifically, the claims are drawn to a clutch device comprising a shaft, a main chassis, a drive pulley, a cylindrical pulley holder, driving means, an ascendable/descendable gear, a cylindrical holder, a clutch spring with connecting portions, and contacting surfaces of the pulley holder and gear.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed August 3, 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Concerning applicant's arguments about the propriety of the rejection, given the outlined parallelism between the claims of the patent and the application (see list of commonly recited elements in the combination above), the minor wording differences and order of the recited elements and/or functional limitations do not amount to patentable distinctions between the claims. Given no differences of substance were found in the claims (except for those of editorial nature) or exposed by the applicant, no leap of obviousness (other than the rearrangement/renaming of the claimed elements) and/or further burden of proof is deemed necessary.

Moreover, applicant's arguments fail to comply with 37 CFR 1.111(b) because they amount to a general allegation that the claims define a patentable invention without specifically pointing out how the language of the claims patentably distinguishes them from the references. Moreover, given the outlined parallelism between the two claims (see list of commonly recited elements in the combination above), the minor wording differences and order of the recited elements and/or functional limitations do not amount to patentable distinctions between the combinations.

Note: The double patenting rejection has been revised to reflect the proper judicially created basis.

For the above reasons, the rejection is deemed proper.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 5 and 6 are allowed.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
